SKILLS: PRONUNCIATION AND VOCABULARY

Goal: to improve pronunciation and learn vocabulary

Materials: Is ERnie an attORney? (computer) and The Longman Advanced American Dictionary (book)

To open this program:

1. Click on the ESL Resources folder.
2. Click on Pronunciation.
3. Click on Is ERnie attORney?

- Click on X to close the purple box, and then click on Jill, the 2nd box in the top line.
- Click on X to close the green box.
- Put your headphones on. You are going to listen to the vowel sound /i/ like the vowel sound in Jill, bit, sit, give, think.
- In the left corner, click on Game, and then click on Level 2.
- You will click on all the boxes and choose the one word whose red vowel sound is the same as the /i/ in Jill.
- Click Continue to go to the next box.
- Sometimes you can risk your points. When you do this, you can double your points or lose them.
- When you have clicked on all the words, write your score here: _____
- In the space below, write 5 new or difficult words you learned today and use the dictionary to find these words. Write the definitions for the words. If you can't find the definitions in the dictionary, ask the ESL instructor to help you.
- If you have extra time, click on Beth and play the game again with the /eh/ sound.

SKILL: VOCABULARY

Goal: to develop vocabulary

Materials:

Oxford Picture Dictionary (computer)

YOU MUST HAVE A PRINT ACCOUNT TO DO THIS ACTIVITY.

To open this program:

1. Open the ESL Resources folder.
2. Open the Vocabulary folder.
2. Click on Oxford Picture Dictionary Interactive.
3. Click on Sign in.
4. Find your name and click on it. Your password should be your first name.

- Click on Everyday Language (the 1st box).
- Click on Succeeding in School (the 6th box).
- Do Explore to learn new words. Add at least 4 new words that you are learning to your Vocabulary Notebook by clicking on right next to the word in the white box at the bottom. You can always see all the words you have added to your notebook by clicking on Vocabulary Notebook at the bottom of the page. If you prefer, you can write the new words on a sheet of paper and attach it behind this paper.
- Do Practice (Read and Find, Listen and Spell). When you're ready, take the Test. Write your Test score in the space below.
- After you finish, click on Main Menu. Choose Everyday Language.
- Repeat the above instructions for A Classroom (the 4th box).
- Go to your Vocabulary Notebook and print it.
- Write the definitions of the words in your Vocabulary Notebook or on your paper.
- Staple your Vocabulary Notebook or the paper with the eight new words and their definitions to the back of this assignment sheet. The ESL instructor will quiz you on the words, so be ready to answer his/her questions about your words.
